FIRST TIME GUESTS

JONAH 1:1-17

1. YOUR DIRECTION WILL COME FROM _____.

“One day, God spoke his Word to Jonah, the son of Amittai.” Jonah 1:1

2. YOU WILL HAVE TO TAKE A _____.

“I want you to get up and go to the great city of Nineveh...” Jonah 1:2a

3. YOU WILL _____ IN SOMEWAY.

“...go to the great city of Nineveh and tell them that I see all the evil happening there and I won't ignore it.” Jonah 1:2b

4. IT WILL PROBABLY FILL YOU WITH _____.

“But Jonah ran away from the presence of the Lord.”
Jonah 1:3a

5. RUNNING FROM GOD CAUSES _____.

• IF YOU RUN, LIFE WILL _____.

“He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship headed for the port of Tarshish. He paid the price to sail to Tarshish, and went down below deck, hoping to get as far away from God as he could get.”
Jonah 1:3b

“Jonah was down below laying down sound asleep.”
Jonah 1:5

• IF YOU RUN, THERE IS _____.

“He paid the price to sail to Tarshish.”
Jonah 1:3b

• IF YOU RUN, GOD WILL _____.

“But the Lord sent an opposing wind...”
Jonah 1:4a

• IF YOU RUN, IT WILL ALSO _____.

“...the opposing wind created such a massive storm that the ship was in danger of breaking apart!”
Jonah 1:4b

“All the sailors were terrified, and they cried out in desperation to whatever gods each one trusted. They also threw overboard everything they could to lighten the ship’s load. While this storm was threatening everyone, Jonah was down below deck laying down sound asleep.”
Jonah 1:5

“So they asked Jonah ‘How have you brought down all this trouble on us?’”
Jonah 1:8a

6. THE LONGER YOU RUN THE _____.

“Now the storm was getting worse and the waves got rougher, so again they asked Jonah, ‘What should we do to you to stop the storm and calm everything down?’”
Jonah 1:11

“‘Throw me overboard down into the sea,’ Jonah said, ‘and everything will calm down. I know that it is my fault that you’re having to fight this terrible storm.’”
Jonah 1:12

7. IF YOU’RE RUNNING, TRYING _____.

“Instead, the sailors tried harder to row the ship back to land and safety. But they could not turn it around, for the raging storm was out of control.”
Jonah 1:13

THREE MIRACLES OF OBEDIENCE

1. LIFE’S STORMS BEGIN TO _____.

“Finally, the sailors cried out to Jonah’s God ‘O Lord, don’t let us die because of this man’s life! And please don’t hold us responsible for his death, because you, Lord, sent this storm for your purpose.’ Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and immediately the raging sea calmed down.”
Jonah 1:14-15

2. UNBELIEVERS WATCH YOU AND _____.

“When the sailors saw this happen, they were awestruck by God’s greatness and they worshiped God. They offered a sacrifice and made vows to God.”
John 1:16

3. GOD _____.

“Now the Lord prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was inside that great fish for three days and nights.”
Jonah 1:17
